Consultant Review of Conceptual, Preliminary and Final Plat Applications - (Town)					Cost to Town
Application for subdivision approval may be referred by the Planning Board to its Town Engineer and/or private consultants for review. Such consultants may include an engineer, planning consultant or other specialist if necessary for the Board to make an informed decision. Expenses incurred by the Town for this purpose shall be fair and reasonable and shall be reimbursed to the Town by the applicant in the amount of the actual expense incurred. A minimum escrow account of $1500 shall be established for this purpose at the time of preliminary plat application for any major subdivision. For an application for a commercial communication facility, the amount of escrow requested should be large enough so that requests for an applicant to add to the escrow account will be infrequent or unnecessary. Should the required escrow be depleted before final approval, the applicant will be advised that additional monies must be deposited before review will continue.
Performance/Maintenance Guarantees (Bonds, Deposits or Letters of Credit) - (Town Code §201)
These requirements shall be met in accordance with the procedure established by the Town's Zoning Law and the Town's Subdivision Regulations, The Town's Highway Laws, and applicable provisions of Town Law.
Payments in Lieu of Dedication of Recreational Land -
New York State Law Pertaining to the subdivision of land provides that towns may require applicants to donate land for recreation to the Town. The law also provides that in lieu of land, fees may be charged and applied to the Town's recreation acquisition and development program.
Lots and Dwellings - (Town Code §250-62(B)(11))
Payments to the Town's Capital Projects Fund Recreation account shall be computed at $4750 per lot, excluding the original lot, or $4750 per dwelling unit if more than one dwelling unit per lot (e.g. a cluster of similar development, each apartment or condominium in an apartment building, or each dwelling unit in a town house complex.). In accordance with the Town's Subdivision Regulation, land may be dedicated for park purposes if it is determined by the Planning board, with approval of the Town Board, that such dedication is desirable.					$4,750
Mobile Home Site
Under Special Permit approval, payments to the Town's Capital Projects Fund Recreation account shall be computed at $1000 per each mobile home site in a mobile home park.					$1,000
II. ZONING RELATED FEES
Special Permit and/or Site Plan Review - (Town Code §250 -96(c)(10) and §250-97(2)(a))					$500
This fee is intended to cover administrative, clerical, and mailing fees. Only one special permit or site plan review fee is required if both site plan and special permit application is made. In addition, the Planning Board may require an initial deposit in an escrow account, to cover consultant reviews, including the Town's attorney, associated with such special permit application.
Publication (legal notices, certified mailings) and circulation (Agricultural Data Statement, SEQR) expenses shall be reimbursed by the applicant to the Town of Clinton at final approval.					Cost to Town
If Needed
Renewal if needed of special Permit and/or Site Plan Review					$350
Amendment of approved special permit and/or Site Plan review					$400
Appeal					$300
No additional costs will be charged except that if a stenographic record of the hearing is requested, then the applicant shall bear the cost of creating such a record. This fee shall be refunded to the applicant if the determination of the original officer is reversed upon administrative review.
Short Term Rental (STR) Fees (LL2 of 2020 adopted 11-10-2020)
