Consultant Review of Conceptual, Preliminary and Final Plat Applications -					Cost to Town
	Application for subdivision approval may be referred by the Planning Board to its Town Engineer and/or private consultants for review. Such consultants may include an engineer, planning consultant or other specialist if necessary for the Board to make an informed decision. Expenses incurred by the Town for this purpose shall be fair and reasonable and shall be reimbursed to the Town by the applicant in the amount of the actual expense incurred. A minimum escrow account of $1500 shall be established for this purpose at the time of preliminary plat application for any major subdivision. For an application for a commercial communication facility, the amount of escrow requested should be large enough so that requests for an applicant to add to the escrow account will be infrequent or unnecessary. Should the required escrow be depleted before final approval, the applicant will be advised that additional monies must be deposited before review will continue.
Performance/Maintenance Guarantees (Bonds, Deposits or Letters of Credit) - (Town Code §201)
	These requirements shall be met in accordance with the procedure established by the Town's Zoning Law and the Town's Subdivision Regulations, The Town's Highway Laws, and applicable provisions of Town Law.
Payments in Lieu of Dedication of Recreational Land -
	New York State Law Pertaining to the subdivision of land provides that towns may require applicants to donate land for recreation to the Town. The law also provides that in lieu of land, fees may be charged and applied to the Town's recreation acquisition and development program.
	Lots and Dwellings - (Town Code §250-62(B)(11))
	Payments to the Town's Capital Projects Fund Recreation account shall be computed at $4500 per lot, excluding the original lot, or $4500 per dwelling unit if more than one dwelling unit per lot (e.g. a cluster of similar development, each apartment or condominium in an apartment building, or each dwelling unit in a town house complex.). In accordance with the Town's Subdivision Regulation, land may be dedicated for park purposes if it is determined by the Planning board, with approval of the Town Board, that such dedication is desirable.				$4,500
	Mobile Home Site
	Under Special Permit approval, payments to the Town's Capital Projects Fund Recreation account shall be computed at $800 per each mobile home site in a mobile home park.				$1,000
II. ZONING RELATED FEES
	Special Permit and/or Site Plan Review - (Town Code §250 -96(c)(10) and §250-97(2)(a))				$275
	This fee is intended to cover administrative, clerical, legal advertising and mailing fees. Only one special permit or site plan review fee is required if both site plan and special permit application is made. In addition, the Planning Board may require an initial deposit in an escrow account, to cover consultant reviews, including the Town's attorney, associated with such special permit application.
	If Needed
	Renewal if needed of special Permit and/or Site Plan Review				$200
	Amendment of approved special permit and/or Site Plan review				$225
	Administrative Review -				$200
	No additional costs will be charged except that if a stenographic record of the hearing is requested, then the applicant shall bear the cost of creating such a record. This fee shall be refunded to the applicant if the determination of the original officer is reversed upon administrative review.
Short Term Rental (STR) Fees (LL2 of 2020 adopted 11-10-2020)
	Non Hosted STR Special Permit				$275

Variance or Change of Use - (Town Code §250-98(B)(3))					$200
	In addition, if a consultant, including the Town's Attorney, is necessary to make an informed decision, a deposit shall be established in an escrow account by recommendation of the ZBA.
Petition for Rezoning					$750
	In addition to the fee for such a petition, if a consultant, including the Town's attorney, is necessary to make an informed decision, a deposit, shall be established in an escrow account by recommendation of the consultant and/or the Town's Attorney. The amount requested should be sufficient to reimburse the costs incurred by the Town for professional consultation fees and extraordinary expenses.
Zoning Permit Fees- (Town Code §250-71(F)(3)(c)and §250-75)					$100
	Soil, Erosion, Pond or Temporary Permits (Such fees will be waived if approved as part of a site plan or other review that requires a fee.)
	Town Wetlands Permit				$250
Professional Services Fees Including Fees Related to SEQR					Cost to Town
	Applications may require the reviewing Board to engage professional services as part of the review process. Such services may include an engineer, planning consultant or other specialists necessary for the Board to make an informed decision. Expenses incurred by the Town for this purpose shall be fair and reasonable and shall be reimbursed to the Town by the applicant in the amount of the actual expense incurred. An escrow account shall be established for this purpose by the applicant in an amount suggested by the reviewing Board, if it determines that such services are required. Should the required escrow be depleted before final approval, the applicant will be advised that additional monies must be deposited before review will continue.
